A note From Swim Team Director Linda Ross

I am looking forward to the new season and my new role as swim director. We are currently interviewing coaching candidates. Once the position is filled, we will announce the choice via email. Afternoon practice will begin on Tuesday, May 31st and morning practices will start on June 13th. Our team will participate in 6 meets. Meet dates and practice times are listed in your membership information packet. An informational parent meeting will be held at 6 p.m. on Friday, June 10th. I am looking forward to working with the coaches, children, and parents this season. Direct any concerns or requests to me at lindar1409@verizon.net. Please make sure I have your current email and check your email for upcoming news and dates.

Swimmer Eligibility

All associate members 18 & U by June 1, 2011 and who have passed the Fair Blue Safety Test, are eligible to join the club swim team. Members who would like to participate should complete this form. The form may be mailed with your Bondholder Information Form prior to pool opening or may be turned in at the front desk after May 26, 2011. You can register up to 4 swimmers per form. Swimmers may only compete in one Summer Recreational League in accordance with North Brandywine Swim League (NBSL) regulations.

Fair Blue Flyers Swim Team FUNdamentals

- Flyers have fun! The team has fun events while learning the sport of competitive swimming. Pancake breakfast, tie dying, and end of season party to name a few.
- Every Flyer swims! Swimmers compete in as many events as possible. Positive attitude and practice attendance are taken into account when creating the line up.
- Flyers are Good Sports! Swimmers are encouraged to try their best, but not at the cost of others.
- Flyers are all winners! Coaches look to recognize all swimmers for team spirit and improvement.
